To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

SIR:—Up to the time when secession was talked about and voted for, I was a Democrat, but since then I have been for the Union first and the Republican party second. I was present as one of the voters at the court heuse corner, after the ordinance of secession was passed at Richmond, Va., which repassed at Richmond, Va., which requested the county and state assessor to resign, so that revenue from Ohio county would or could not go to Richmend. Mr. Elljah Dzy, who was also present, he being the assessor, resigned then and there. That is as near as I can come to voting for Abraham Lincoln, but I voted for him when he ran the second time. My becoming a Republican brought along four brothers with me from the opposite ranks.

Yours truly,
Wheeling, October 17.

Wellsburg's Quota.

Wellsburg boasts among her leading citizens one who was a delegate to the Pittsburgh convention of 1856 that organized the Republican party, in the person of Thomas Boyd. Mr. Boyd at that time was a resident of Washington county, Pa., but has resided in Wellsburg for nearly thirty years, and is one of the Republican nominees for justice of the peace in Wellsburg district. There are also living in Wellsburg the following voters who are survivors of the sixty-three who in Brooke county voted in 1859 for Lincoln and Hamilin: J. G. Jacob, G. B. Crawford, George W. Russell, R. T. Craif, J. E. Montgomery, J. T. Moore, C. H. Kimberland, William Noland, Edwin Fenwick, J. B. Hagen, These are all staunch supporters of them, at least, expect to be in attendance at the great Roosevelt demonstration in this city to-day.
